To J. B. K. : Inspect the New York Journal of Commerce, and you will find that it invariably writes "los." for pounds. It is good authority. The fact that there is no "s" in the plural of the word "libra" makes no difference. You yourself write "gents" for "gentlemen" though this last word contains no "s." Nevertheless Webster says that lb. will stand for either the singular or the plural.

SEPTEMBER 24, 1877. Editors Dispatch : Please parse the third "that" in the sentence, "That man said that that would do," and oblige

A TEACHER. ANSWER .- The first "that" and the third are limiting adjectives, or, as they used to be called, adjective pronouns. Of course, then, some word unexpressed is to be parsed as following the third "that." Our correspondent does not tell us enough of the conversation to enable us to know what that understood word is.

A Brave Girl. MISS RICHARDS SAVES A BOY AND GIVES A DEER A LIVELY TUSSLE.

[From the Cleveland Leader.] Miss Emma Richards, of Akron, a girl verging on twenty years of age, was with her mother visiting at the residence of Mr. Timothy Loomis, in Lodi, when a son of Timothy, surnamed Phineas, proposed that he should show her a small herd of deer that were kept in an enclosure on their The young lady consented, and Phineas started into the brush to scare them up, the young lady meanwhile standing at the gate to await the appearance of the menagerie. Suddenly she heard a cry of "Murder" in the somewhat juvenile voice of Phineas. Never thinking of fear, Miss Richards started in the direction of the noise, and after going a few rods discovered the boy pinned to the earth, while an angry buck stood over him with the prong of one horn through the flesh of the boy's side, and embedded in the earth. She instantly grasped a club and went for Mr. Buck. He paid no attention to the first and second blows, but when she gave him the third crack he turned and went for her. Unable to ward off his apand pluck to prevent her being thrown to the ground. Still holding on to the horns she backed off gradually, and in that manner reached the fence, but not till her clothes were badly torn, and her body was bruised again and again. At last, nearly exhausted, again and again. At last, nearly exhausted, MAGNIFICENT STORE, with basement, and she reached the fence, and succeeded in get- with or without dwelling above, No. 1421 Main ting over it without receiving any serious injury. Eleventh street between Main and Bank. TRUSTEE'S SALE BY AUCTION OF TRUSTEE'S SALE BY AUCTION OF THE LARGE AND VALUABLE ESTATE KNOWN AS "WOODSON'S." LYING IN CHESTERFIELD COUNTY, ON JAMES RIVER, ABOUT EIGHTEEN MILES BELOW RICHMOND, VA.—By virtue of a deed of trust executed to the subscriber as trustee, bearing date the 2d of December, 1865, and recorded in Chesterfield County Court, being thereto required by the creditor secured. I will sell at auction, upon the premises, on WEDNESDAY the 26th of September, 1877, at 12 o'clock M., the well-known estate above referred to formerly owned by Mr. James B. Jones. It contains ONE THOUSAND EIGHT HUNDRED AND THIRTY-TWO AND THEEE-QUARTER ACRES (more or less), and is situated in the bend of the river just below Aiken's landing and opposite to Deep Bottom and Curi's Neck. About 500 acres is reclaimed marsh-land, as rich as land can be, and for forty years before the war was cultivated every year in corn, yielding enormous crops without at all lessening its fertility. During the war the bank gave way, and the land remained under water for several years; but it has since been reclaimed, and is now very productive. With small additional outlay it may be made perfectly secure against the tides, and will then yield as heavily as any land in Virginia.

There are about 200 ACRES of very superior lay it may be unde perfectly secure against the lides, and will then yield as heavily as any land in Virginia.

There are about 200 ACRES of very superior SECOND LOW-GROUNDS, excellent for grass and the cereals. The balance of the cleared land is very susceptible of a high degree of improvement, and there are about 700 ACRES in WOOD and TIMBER of good quality.

The river encloses the estate nearly all around, and about one half a mile of fence will enclose at least 800 acres; cross-fences may be made at small cost, so as to furnish all the enclosures that could be desired.

There are, say, FIVE HOUSES suitable for tenants, and extensive barns, stables, &c.

This is said to be one of the most productive ESTATES of its size on James river, and in the right hands can doubtless be made very profitable.

About 830% acres of the tract are subject to a deed of trust, securing about $4,000, which has priority over the deed under which this sale, will be made, but it is intended to pay off said debt in full out of the proceeds arising from this sale, and to obtain a full release of the deed securing the same.

TERMS: One fourth cash; the balance in equal instalments at one, two, three, and four years, with interest at six per cent, per annum, payable annually, for negotiable notes, secured by a deed of trust on the property, or all cash at the option of the purchaser. The purchaser will be entitled to enter into possession as soon as the terms of sale shall be compiled with.

Persons desiring to examine the property or to at-piled with.

Persons desiring to examine the property or to attend the sale may go by the river steamer which leaves the city on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, at 6 o'clock A. M., and will land passengers on the fine wharf at Woodson's.
